

MS59 Medieval Manuscripts on Microfilm Collection

About the collection:

The collection comprises of copies of 367 manuscripts (in full or in part) held on c.220 microfilms, the vast majority of which were donated to Special Collections at the conclusion of two large AHRC-funded research projects - Imagining History (2002-2005) and Geographies of Orthodoxy (2007-2010) - undertaken at the School of English at Queen's University Belfast. These projects investigated, respectively, the Middle English Prose Brut and the Anglophone pseudo-Bonaventuran tradition. As such, vernacular manuscripts relating to these traditions are a key strength of the collection.

Accessing the collection:

The microfilms are available for consultation on the dedicated microfilm reader in the Special Collections' seminar room. Advance notice is required.
