

Charities, nonprofits and NGOs: (re)building trust and legitimacy

Centre for Not-for-profit and Public Sector Research (CNPR), Queen's University Belfast - Tuesday 3rd /Wednesday 4th September 2019

VENUE

The conference will take place in the Canada Room and Council Chamber of the Lanyon Building, on the main campus of Queen's University Belfast, University Road.

<https://goo.gl/maps/Siov3PiTBFUyXbhZA>

Belfast is served by Uber, and local firms ValueCabs 02890 809080 and FonaCab 02890 333333.

CONFERENCE DINNER

The conference dinner will take place at Shu Restaurant, 253 Lisburn Road Belfast (15 minutes' walk from the conference venue) <https://goo.gl/maps/s2a1nnkSbog8sA9M6>

GETTING HERE

Belfast is served by Belfast International Airport (BFS) and George Best City Airport (BHD).

From Belfast International Airport (BFS), a taxi will take approx. 40 minutes and cost £30-35. A bus service is available to the centre of Belfast Translink website for BFS

From George Best City Airport (BHD), a taxi will take approx. 15 minutes and cost £15. A bus service is available to the centre of Belfast Translink website for BHD

From Dublin airport (a 90 minute journey) bus services include: Translink website for DUB and Aircoach website for DUB

ACCOMMODATION IN BELFAST

There are a range of hotels within 10 minutes' walk of the Lanyon Building.

DUKES AT QUEENS

University Street, Belfast,
www.dukesatqueens.com/

MALONE LODGE

60 Eglantine Avenue, Malone Road, Belfast
www.malonelodgehotelbelfast.com/

IBIS QUEENS QUARTER

75 University Street, Belfast
<https://www.accorhotels.com/gb/hotel-7288-ibis-belfast-queens-quarter/index.shtml#origin=ibis>

You can also find accommodation using Airbnb: Airbnb University Rd search