

Workshop on Justice and International Wrongdoing
Queen's University, Belfast
2nd-3rd July, 2009

On 2-3rd July, 2009, the School of Politics, International Studies and Philosophy at Queen's University, Belfast, will be playing host to a workshop on the theme of justice and international wrongdoing. The aim of this event is to bring together a range of specialists from philosophy, political theory and IR departments to explore the ways in which international wrongdoing affects the demands of global justice. Themes to be addressed include the justification of international punishment, collective responsibility, just war theory, and international corrective justice.

VENUE

The Conference Room, School of Politics, International Studies and Philosophy, 21 University Square, Belfast.

REGISTRATION

Attendance at this event is free. However, those wishing to attend are asked to register by emailing Jeremy Watkins at j.watkins@qub.ac.uk. There will also be a dinner for speakers and delegates in a local restaurant on the Thursday evening. If you would like to attend, please indicate in your email (cost approx. £20-25).
