MINORITIES AND TERRITORY: RETHINKING AUTONOMY AS STRATEGY

Editors: Tove H. Malloy and Francesco Palermo

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements
Abbreviations
Table of Treaties
Table of Documents
Table of Cases

Introduction
Tove H. Malloy

Part I – Reconceptualizing autonomy and territory

Chapter 1:
Owned or Shared? Territorial Autonomy in the Minority Discourse
Francesco Palermo

Chapter 2:
Can Non-Territorial Autonomy bring an Added Value to Ethnic Politics?
Geneviève Nootens

Chapter 3:
Non-Territorial Autonomy: The Meaning of ‘(Non-)Territoriality’
Markku Suksi

Chapter 4:
NTA and the Liberal Democratic State (preliminary title)
Ephraim Nimni

Part Two – Autonomy in history and law

Chapter 5:
Promises and Pitfalls of Non-territorial Autonomy: Non-territorial Millets in Ottoman History
Jan Erk

Chapter 6:
From Empire to multilateral player: the deep roots of autonomy in Russia
Bill Bowring

Chapter 7:
TA in the Context of International and European Law (preliminary)

John Packer

Part Three – Territorial and non-territorial autonomy in a global perspective

Chapter 8:
Non-Territorial Autonomy as Political Strategy in Eastern Europe

David Smith

Chapter 9:
Autonomy as symbolic production: the case of contemporary Russia

Alexander Osipov

Chapter 10:
Managing Indigenous Territory in the Americas (preliminary)

Alexandra Xanthaki

Chapter 11:
Autonomy in South Asia: Evidence for the Emergence of a Regional Custom

Joshua Castellino

Chapter 12:
Sub-national Autonomy in Africa: a doomed past, ambivalent present and uncertain future?

Solomon Dersso

Conclusions

Karl Kössler