#CaughtGreenHanded Twitter Competition

To promote environmental awareness, Green at Queen's will again be running a 'Caught Green Handed' twitter competition throughout Green Week. We want to show off all the great actions our staff and students take to 'do their bit' for the environment!

To enter, simply snap a picture of you, your friends or your team, doing your bit for the environment, and tweet them to @greenatqueens with the hashtag #CaughtGreenHanded.

Inspiring entries will receive spot prizes!

If you have any questions about any of the above events please feel free to email carbonmanagement@qub.ac.uk
