Queen's is a world-leading research University and is ranked in the top 1% globally. In order to help more International students to study their PhD at Queen's University Belfast, the Faculty of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences is offering International PHD awards worth over £125,000.

Students can avail these awards for PhD study in any of the five schools in the Faculty.

SCHOOL OF HISTORY, ANTHROPOLOGY, PHILOSOPHY AND POLITICS

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SCIENCES, EDUCATION AND SOCIAL WORK

SCHOOL OF ARTS, ENGLISH AND LANGUAGES

SCHOOL OF LAW

QUEEN'S MANAGEMENT SCHOOL

Award winners will receive one year of accommodation free of charge in Queen's University Halls of Residence. This will save international students approximately £6000 in their first year of study at Queen's and will allow students to settle into their new home and studies quickly and smoothly.

"The International Faculty Award was the deciding factor in my acceptance to the doctoral program at Queen's University. The important financial scholarship was a gesture of welcoming that made the tough job of saying good-bye to friends, family and students at New York University a little bit easier. The award allowed me to focus on my research with a sense of freedom and peace, and, to enjoy the resources that this exceptional university offers."
