

Progression Scholarships

Scholarships for all INTO students who progress successfully to Queen's University Belfast in September 2017.

For further information, please contact the Queen's Progression Officer by email: y.feng@qub.ac.uk

International Office Scholarship

Undergraduate	Master's
Year One Award of £2,500 (fee rate 1) or £3,000 (fee rate 2)	Year One Award of £2,000 (fee rate 1) or £3,000 (fee rate 2)

Progression Prizes

Award	Category	Amount	Criteria*
Exceptional Progression Award	Law	£500	Student progressing to the School of Law with the highest academic mark (including both UG and PG)
The Education for Excellence Award	School of Social Sciences, Education and Social Work	£300 Equipment Fund	Student progressing to the School of SSESW with the highest academic mark (including both UG and PG)
Exceptional Progression Award	School of Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering	£500	Student progressing to Year Two within the School of Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering with the highest academic mark
Exceptional Progression Award	Queen's Management School	£250	Student progressing to Queen's Management School with the highest academic mark (including both UG and PG)
Exceptional Progression Award	Pharmacy	£250	Student progressing to the School of Pharmacy with the highest academic mark
Exceptional Progression Award	Biomedical Sciences	£250	Student progressing to the School of Biomedical Science with the highest academic mark
Exceptional Progression Award	Biological Sciences	£250	Student progressing to the School of Biological Science with the highest academic mark
Exceptional Progression Award	Computer Science	£300	Student progressing to Computer Science, including MEng and BEng/BSc, with the highest academic mark
Exceptional Progression Award	Electrical and Electronic Engineering	£350	Student progressing to Year One of Electrical and Electronic Engineering, including MEng and BEng, from International Foundation programme with the highest academic mark
Exceptional Progression Award	Electrical and Electronic Engineering	£350	Student progressing to Year Two of Electrical and Electronic Engineering, including MEng and BEng, from International Year One programme with the highest academic mark

*For students progressing to Queen's University in 2017-18 Academic Year only. No application is necessary for International Office Scholarships and Progression Prizes. Only students' academic average grades will be assessed for prize purposes. If two or more students' grades are the highest, then English overall grades will be taken into consideration. If they are also the same, students will share the prize and be awarded a certificate each.