GEORGE J. MITCHELL
INSTITUTE FOR GLOBAL PEACE,
SECURITY AND JUSTICE

Professor David Connolly

Professor David Connolly is Practitioner Chair (part-time) at The Senator George J. Mitchell Institute for Global Peace, Security and Justice. He works at the intersection between research, policy and practice in fragile and conflict-affected states, specializing in the role of evidence in conflict prevention and post-conflict recovery. With a primary interest in institutional governance, David engages regularly with other disciplines and sectors that include education, climate change adaptation, financial management, and international law.

David's expertise has been commissioned to strengthen knowledge, policy and frontline practice by several governments (Afghanistan, Netherlands, and UK), multilateral agencies (UN and World Bank), international NGOs, the private sector, the Netherlands Scientific Research Council, the Qatar Foundation, the Roosevelt Foundation, and the Rotary Foundation.

He has professional experience in 16 fragile and conflict-affected states in South and Southeast Asia, East and West Africa, and the Middle East. Since 2005, David has held senior full-time and honorary positions at universities and institutes in Amsterdam, Doha, The Hague, and York.
