INFORMED CONSENT FOR RESEARCH
LEGAL & ETHICAL ISSUES IN CONSENT

Tuesday 11 April 2017, 1.30pm – 4.30pm

Seminar Room, Research & Enterprise Directorate (63 University Road)

Informed consent is the foundation of all ethical research

This workshop will focus on the ethical, legal and practical issues around obtaining informed consent from individuals participating in clinical research projects. It will also cover consent issues relating to the use of human tissue and data in research. The workshop will consist of a mixture of short presentations, case studies and practical exercises. Although the workshop may focus on clinical research, the principles discussed all form part of good research practice.
