

TERMS & CONDITIONS – Lord Kerr Scholarship

1. Students must hold an offer for a place on a full-time postgraduate taught programme at the Queen's University Belfast campus, starting in the academic year 2021/22 and prior to commencement of study have met any academic and language conditions attached to their offer as stated in their offer letter.
2. Students applying for the international award (£10K) must be classified as international fee-paying students paying the international tuition fee rate in order to be considered for this discount.
3. The discount is awarded for the first year of study only and is deducted from gross tuition fees upon enrolment.
4. The scholarship cannot be used in lieu of any required deposit and no cash alternative is available.
5. The Scholarship is for entry to Queen's University Belfast in the autumn semester of the academic year 2021/22 and cannot be used for 2022/23 entry or any other year.
6. If you wish to defer your entry to the University your scholarship will not be transferred.
7. Students must be self-funded.
8. If you are in receipt of funding (either tuition fees or tuition fees and living costs) from an external sponsorship body such as Government, a charity or a private organisation you will not be eligible for this Scholarship. This excludes students in receipt of educational loans.
9. As a recipient of the Lord Kerr Scholarship award, you agree to participate in marketing related activities and/or events to promote and share your experiences of the Lord Kerr Scholarship. You will also be required to produce a short report of your studies at Queen's to be shared with the family of Lord Kerr.
10. Students must request authorisation from the School of Law before making any changes to their programme of study. Where changes are made without authorisation being granted, the scholarship may be withdrawn and students may be required to repay the scholarship in full.
11. Applicants may apply and/or be considered for more than one award administered by Queen's University Belfast but if successful would receive the Higher of the awards with the lower value award cancelled or allocated to another applicant.
12. Where eligible, international students can however use their scholarship in conjunction with the Early-Bird reward discount.
13. The University is unable to consider requests for increased and/or further funding. The amount of scholarship offered is non-negotiable.
14. The University's decision regarding successful scholars of the programme is final, and no further correspondence shall be entered into.
15. The University reserves the right to vary all or any scholarship awards, discounts and regulations at its sole discretion.
