WELCOME

THE SCHOOL OF LAW

Law has been taught at Queen's for over 150 years. We are very proud of this heritage - which is reflected in the rankings the School has consistently enjoyed.

Law is a great subject to study, and Queen's is a great place to do it. We have fantastic students, their academic accomplishments matched only by their enthusiasm to get involved in the wider University community. This is reflected in wide-ranging contributions to clubs, societies and volunteering. Our students are taught by an outstanding team of academic staff, from well-established scholars at the forefront of their fields to some of the most promising early-career researchers and teachers anywhere in the world. All of this happens in our home at the heart of Queen's beautiful and historic campus: a state-of-art Law building with superb teaching facilities, a moot court, study and wellbeing spaces, and plenty of light and quality coffee. We enjoy excellent external relationships with the legal profession, reflected in the Judge in Residence programme through which a High Court Judge makes regular contributions with students to the wider academic life of the School; and also in our partnership with Herbert Smith Freehills, who deliver a programme of real-world skills to all students.

LAW

Law looks at the relationships, interactions and transactions between individuals, government and state at a local, regional, national and international level. With a broad focus and application, the law degree encompasses private and public law alongside wider socio-legal perspectives. You will study key aspects of the law and develop a wide range of transferable skills, relevant to your future career trajectory. Our links with the professions, the wide range of additional opportunities within the School and the development of a highly nuanced skill set helps to create highly sought-after graduates.

COURSE CONTENT

The degree offers students the opportunity to study the modules required for a Qualifying Law Degree. In addition, students are offered the opportunity to explore their interests in final year with modules offered that allow them to specialise in a particular area, or simply receive a more rounded sense of what 'Law' is. Many of these modules consider law and law-like interactions on a local, national and international level.

Stage 1

- European Constitutional Law
- European Internal Market Law
- Constitutional Law in Context
- Rights and Accountability
- Legal Methods and Skills
- Criminal Law

Stage 2

- Contract Law

"I chose to study Law because I wanted a well-respected degree that would give me a solid foundation for my future career. I got that at Queen's but I got so much more too. The approach to teaching and learning was so engaging and went well beyond traditional lecturing. The interactive nature of lectures and tutorials brought the law to life and was truly inspiring. The wide range of compulsory and optional subjects allowed me to tailor my degree to my own interests and to discover new ones! The teaching quality was superb and the guidance and support of staff was second to none."

COMMON AND CIVIL LAW WITH FRENCH

This is a fully integrated programme between Law and French. You will focus on the sources of French law, the practice of justice in France, and topical issues with legal/judicial ramifications, whilst also obtaining a Qualifying Law Degree (QLD) for England, Wales and Northern Ireland. The year abroad is a unique opportunity for linguistic development by immersion in Francophone culture. In a globalised workforce, proficiency in an additional language, together with the experience of studying abroad, significantly enhances your employability.

COURSE CONTENT

The degree offers students the opportunity to study the modules required for a Qualifying Law Degree (Legal Methods and Skills, Constitutional Law in Context, European Constitutional Law, Internal Market Law, Criminal Law, Rights and Accountability, Torts, Contract, Equity, Land Law, Contemporary Issues in Property Law, Evidence) in addition to furthering their French studies through a range of modules.

Stage 1

- Constitutional Law in Context
- Legal Methods and Skills
- Rights and Accountability
- Criminal Law
- French 1

Stage 2

- Equity
- Land Law
- European Constitutional Law
- European Internal Market Law
- French 2

Stage 3

- Contract
- Torts
- Contemporary Issues in Property Law
- Evidence
- French 3

WHY QUEEN'S?

Global Opportunities

Students spend an academic year studying French at a university in France or Belgium. In addition to the benefits for oral competence in French, the residence provides a unique opportunity for immersion in French and francophone culture. This feature of our degree programme gives students the opportunity for personal development, further developing communication and language skills and intercultural awareness. The challenges of living abroad come to be a unique (and unforgettable) stage in your personal development, and significantly enhance your employability.

Professional Accreditations

All of the undergraduate Law degrees offered at Queen's are recognised qualifying law degrees, which means that they are accredited by legal professional bodies in Northern Ireland, England and Wales and the Republic of Ireland. This means that the degree covers those subjects that are regarded as pre-requisites for professional legal studies.

Industry Links

Law students have the unique opportunity of working with industry leaders through commercial awareness events and other negotiation exercises that offer insight into the legal practice (and services) world, but also providing an enhanced skills development experience.

Past students have gained work placement with organisations such as the Council of the EU, European Commission, European Parliament, United Nations

A RUSSELL GROUP UNIVERSITY

As a member of the Russell Group, we are one of the UK's 24 leading universities, providing our students with a world-class education underpinned by world-class research. Queen's researchers work closely with more than 250 universities around the world.

RESEARCH AND TEACHING EXCELLENCE

Our teaching quality is recognised as being of the highest standard. Queen's students are taught by academics who are informed by the latest discoveries in their fields. The University has won five Queen's Anniversary Prizes for Further and Higher Education, for world-class achievement in green chemistry, environmental research, palaeoecology, law and for Northern Ireland's Comprehensive Cancer Services (CCS) programme.

The latest UK Research Excellence Framework 2014 revealed that all academic areas at Queen's have research assessed as 'world leading', and the University's research strengths are reflected in the quality of our teaching.

WORLD-CLASS CAMPUS

Queen's has one of the most modern campuses in the UK, including the award winning McClay Library, one of the finest libraries in the world and home to 1.2 million volumes and 2,000 reader places. Other highlights include our new-look Students' Union, the state-of-the-art Physical Education Centre – used as a training camp for the 2012 Olympics. Queen's Elms Student Village or the brand new city centre accommodation Elms BT1 and Elms BT2 are located within easy walking distance of the University.

GRADUATE PROSPECTS

The degrees programmes on offer aim to provide students with a world-class legal education which prepares them for the global and international environment.

“The One Button Studio is a fantastic addition to our wonderful law school building. It reflects the genius and innovation of our staff, and their commitment to the highest-quality skills-based education; and it is opening up a huge range of feedback and collaboration possibilities for our students.”

Professor Robin Hickey
Head of School

Graduates will hold a Qualifying Law Degree (QLD) which provides the necessary professional exemptions to allow holders to progress towards the professional stage in Northern Ireland, England and Wales, Republic of Ireland and other jurisdictions.

LAW SCHOOL

Queen's has spent £20m on providing a start-of-the-art facility for its law students.

The building is located in the heart of the campus next door to the Graduate School and the Peter Froggatt Teaching Centre. The building is not designed to be just a place where a law degree is earned. It has been conceived as a flexible space, shared between staff and students at all levels from undergraduate to Master's and onto PhD. Staff and students are able to meet both formally and informally to share and exchange ideas and knowledge.

The School of Law building offers genuine world-class facilities for learning and research, including an interactive Moot Court room and One Button Studio. The One Button Studio is a high-spec recording studio that gives students the facility to record, review, edit and critically analyse their own presence on camera, and to receive feedback from peers and lecturers.

ABOUT BELFAST AND NORTHERN IRELAND

Belfast itself is a fun city on the current 'Must See' destination lists. It is also the safest region in the UK (British Crime Survey 2015/16). Awash with enthusiasm, culture and that famous Irish friendliness, students can also explore:

- Game of Thrones' film location and activity tours.
- Beautiful scenery and outdoor adventures such as the Giant's Causeway or hiking in the Mourne Mountains.
- Titanic Belfast is the World's Best Visitor Attraction (World Travel Awards 2016).
- Great entertainment and nights out; a buzzing arts and social scene from festivals, theatre and international events to historic pubs, stylish bars and brilliant shopping.
- Northern Ireland: happiest place in the UK (Office of National Statistics 2016) alongside the most affordable for students (NatWest Student Living Index 2015).
- The rest of the UK, Ireland and Europe with accessible airport and transport links to most major cities.
