Monitoring Information

Queen's University Belfast aims to provide equality of opportunity to all persons, regardless of their religious or philosophical belief; political opinion; sex; race; age; sexual orientation; or whether they are married or are in a civil partnership; or whether they are disabled; or whether they have undergone, are undergoing or intend to undergo gender reassignment.

This section of the form is used for the purpose of ensuring that we continue to provide equality of opportunity and we monitor the underrepresented groups who are not recorded using the Q work payment route, for example external applicants applying for funding opportunities, external examiners and guest lecturers.

You are not obliged to answer the questions on this form, and you will not suffer any penalty if you choose not to do so. Nevertheless, we encourage you to answer all questions as the University considers that monitoring is the essential first step in implementation of its equal opportunities policy and its equality scheme. The University would appreciate your cooperation in completing this monitoring form in order that it may effectively monitor, evaluate and review its policies and procedures. Your answers will be used by us to prepare and submit returns to Funders, Higher Education Statistics Agency (HESA) and to provide anonymised data for Institutional reports and Freedom of Information requests. Your identity will always be kept anonymous. This monitoring data will be strictly controlled and managed by Academic Affairs compliant with General Data Protection Regulations.
