

Centre for Educational Development

HE Lunchtime Forum

Friday 18 November 2016, 1.00pm – 1.55pm, Old Staff Common Room

(Sandwich lunch available from 12.45 pm)

You are invited to the next Queen's University Higher Education Lunchtime Forum. These events provide an opportunity for colleagues to exchange good practice, innovative methods and tested approaches in Higher Education learning and teaching. The theme of this session is:

USING PEERWISE

PeerWise is a tool which allows students to generate a shared learning repository of multiple choice questions. (This 90 second video explains the fundamentals). This session will provide a brief overview on the functions of PeerWise but focus on how students of Dr Elaine Farrell, School of History, Anthropology, Philosophy and Politics and Dr Bin Xu, Queen's Management School have used it to develop their learning.

Programme

12.45 pm – 1 pm	Sandwich lunch
1 pm – 1.10 pm	Introduction to PeerWise, Gill Kelly, Centre for Educational Development
1.10 pm – 1.30 pm	Elaine Farrell will explain how first year History students engaged with PeerWise as part of the module 'Deviance in Britain and Ireland, 1700-1900'. It will outline issues that arose from student and staff perspectives and offer practical tips on ways to use PeerWise as part of the curriculum. Comment will be made on student learning and engagement, including experiences for students registered with Disability Services.
1.30 – 1.50 pm	Bin Xu will outline how he used PeerWise in a first year Accountancy module to enable his students to create a series of multiple choice questions which they could use for collaborative learning, as well as test and exam revision.
1.50 – 1.55 pm	Close

If you have a Queen's staff number you can register via Queen's Online for this or any of the other CED courses. Full instructions for booking are on the website. For information or for assistance with registration please email the Centre at ced@gub.ac.uk or telephone extension 1447.