

Careers, Employability and Skills - Introduction

Careers, Employability and Skills (CES) is part of the Educational & Skills Development Division within the Directorate of Academic & Student Affairs. It comprises of four teams offering support for employability and skills development as follows:

Student Development Team: works directly with Queen's students and staff, as well as other external partners, to develop; promote and support opportunities for students to enhance their employability through work-related learning and Careers Education, Information, Advice and Guidance (CEAIG). See About Us on the careers website to find out more about the career consultants who work with each Faculty and School.

Employer Engagement Team: Co-ordinates the University's relationships with employers through and Account Management System and delivers a wide range of employability initiatives in partnership with employers such as presentations, workshops, Careers Fairs.

Student Survey Team: Co-ordinates and manages the University's key student surveys (National Student Survey, Graduate Outcomes, and the First Year and Second Year Experience surveys). The team have established relationships with senior management and all the Faculties and Schools across the University. The Student Survey Team also delivers a wide range of key reports to various committees and offers ad-hoc data analyst support to staff throughout Queen's.

Global Opportunities: Co-ordinates international exchange programmes, and associated funding, which enable Queen's students to undertake part of their degree at a partner institution overseas. Key programmes include Erasmus, University Exchange and Study USA. Also handles the admission of international students to Queen's, for one or two semesters, on exchange or Study Abroad programmes.

Operations Team: Provides operational solutions and support across the CES Service.
