
Courses and Workshops

The Centre for Educational Development organises workshops on Learning, Teaching and Assessment as well as on Using Technology in Learning & Teaching. The courses are free to staff, although there is a charge for non-attendance. For all courses, numbers are restricted and registration is essential. Registration is via Queen's Online (<http://www.qol.qub.ac.uk>) go to "Other" then "Training Courses". There is instant confirmation of a place or of being placed on a waiting list. The topics covered in 2016/17 are listed below and CED is happy to organise customised courses on these or other topics for Schools and specific groups of staff. .

In addition we can also offer bespoke workshops designed for specific school needs through discussion with Heads of School and/or Directors of Education.

- Adaptive Assessment using QuestionMark Perception
- An Introduction to Queen's Online for Learning and Teaching
- Becoming a Fellow of the HE Academy
- Being an Adviser of Studies
- Creating Interactive Learning Resources Using Excel 2013
- Design and Development of eLearning Content with the CMS Templates
- Dynamic PowerPoint Presentations
- Evaluation of Teaching
- Experiencing and Facilitating Online Learning
- Flipping the Lecture
- Helping Students to Learn
- Laboratory Demonstrating
- Linking Teaching and Research
- Mindfulness and Teaching with Emotional Intelligence
- Preparing and Giving Lectures, theory and practice
- Small Group Teaching
- Teaching Larger Classes
- Teaching, Learning and Assessment for Postgraduate Students
- Using Computer Assisted Assessment
- Using GradeMark to Give Feedback
- Using Technology to Enhance Online Learning
- Using the Personal Response System in your Classes
- Using TurnitinUK Originality Checking Software

FURTHER INFORMATION

For further information please contact CED, ext 1447, e-mail ced@qub.ac.uk or www.qub.ac.uk/directorates/AcademicStudentAffairs/CentreforEducationalDevelopment/