

Green Week 2023

QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY BELFAST

Date	Event
Tuesday 7 March 12 noon - 2pm	Community Gardening with a Twist Join SU Volunteer on Tuesday 7 March, 12 noon to 2pm, to find out about local volunteering opportunities, have a go at doing some unusual gardening whilst enjoying some Fairtrade snacks! For further information, and to register please click here .
Wednesday 8 March 2 - 3.30pm	Sustainable Cookery Classes Join Cheryl from Belfast City Council in Elm's BT9 to discover how you can ensure you are cooking and baking in a sustainable way. All food will be provided! For further information, and to register, please email sustainability@qub.ac.uk .
Thursday 9 March 12 noon - 1pm	Climate Geopolitics: Our Shared Future The science is unequivocal: climate change is real, and it is driven by human activities. But how will it influence our everyday life, our communities, our nation-states, and geopolitics? Join Tristan Sturm, Senior Lecturer within the School of Natural and Built Environment, on Thursday 9 March, 12 noon online. To register please click here .
Friday 10 March 7.30pm	Green Documentary Showing Live in Queen's Accommodation? Join the Accommodation Team in BT1, BT2 and BT9 for a movie night! For further information, and to register, please email rlcibt9@qub.ac.uk .

