About the Collection:

MS1/204 is a collection of typescripts in a folder marked "Complete file: Belfast Creative Writing Group 1963-6". A note on the folder states that the contributions were acquired as a "Gift of Mr. Hobsbaum, creator of C.W.G.".

Philip Hobsbaum (1932-2005) was a lecturer in the Faculty of Arts at Queen's University Belfast from 1962 to 1966. During that period, he established the Belfast Creative Writing Group, or "The Group". Members included James Simmons, Stewart Parker, Bernard MacClaverty, Michael Longley and Seamus Heaney.

The collection contains 67 discrete items, and all but one are typescripts by 29 different authors. Although this collection is comprised mostly of poetry, it also contains plays, short stories, prose pieces and book chapters including submissions from high profile contributors.
