

MS 81 Cunningham Collection

About the Collection

The Cunningham Collection was originally held in St Mary's Church Castle Lane Belfast and was donated to Special Collections and Archives, Queen's University Belfast in 2021.

The collection is made up of books and files belonging to the Reverend Canon Dr Joseph Cunningham, which includes correspondence, devotional and liturgical material such as funeral mass cards, ordination cards and prayer cards and a selection of the Sacred Heart Messenger pamphlets ranging from October 1981 to June 2000 (not a complete set). There are also miscellaneous photographs, postcards, examination papers, lectures, and a copy of 'Screwtape Proposes a Toast and other stories' by C.S. Lewis.

Some of the correspondence included in the collection is from Verlag Herder Freiburg and concerns Rev Canon Cunningham's translation of 'Wikenhauser Christismystik' which was published as 'Pauline Mysticism' in 1960. Pauline Mysticism is available to consult in Special Collections (Daly BS2655.M9 WIKE).

Reverend Canon Joseph Cunningham was born on the Springfield Road in Belfast and attended St Malachy's College and Queen's University Belfast, where he studied Greek and Latin. He then attended Maynooth College in Dublin and was ordained as a Priest in 1947 by the then Archbishop of Dublin, Dr McQuaid.

Rev Canon Cunningham undertook further study in the Gregorian University in Rome under the papacy of Pope Pius XII, before returning to Belfast and teaching at St Malachy's College Belfast in the 1950/60's. Following this Rev Canon Cunningham was made parish Priest of Carryduff and Drumbo, before becoming Parish Priest at St Patrick's Church Lisburn in 1978. After dedicating 20 years of his life to the role of Parish Priest in Lisburn, Rev Canon Cunningham retired in August 1998. He died on 4th December 2011.

(Information on Reverend Canon Cunningham's life was obtained from the article Ulster Star (1998) 'Canon retires after 20 years as Parish Priest' Ulster Star, 14th August 1998.)
