*The decision to refer a case to the Committee of Discipline should be taken in consultation with Academic Affairs. A hearing is not required for a case to be referred.

**The emergency codicil to the Conduct Regulations to deal with alleged breaches of COVID-19 regulations and/or guidance has been revoked by the Vice-Chancellor (effective 1 September 2021). Alleged breaches which occurred prior to 1 September 2021 will be managed to completion.

In addition to the above penalties, students will be required to pay for any loss or damage that resulted directly or indirectly from the student's misconduct. The standard penalties listed above are not maximum penalties. Depending on the circumstances and severity of an offence a heavier penalty may be applied.

In cases where a student admits an offence or presents mitigating circumstances (which should be recorded), a lesser penalty may be considered. A written warning will stay on the student transcript until graduation.

A second offence of an identical or similar nature will normally be referred to a Committee of Discipline. A second offence of a different nature may be dealt with by a Disciplinary Officer. More than three minor offences will result in a student being referred directly to a Committee of Discipline.
