

Who are we?

- 7 week sleepaway camp in New Hampshire (about an hour and a half north of Boston)
- Private, traditional, for-profit camp
- 250 campers, 150 staff
- Staff are 50% international, 50% US domestic

Peter Brimstone

Assistant Director, Head of Boys' Camp

- First summer – 2008 – Activity Specialist
- I went for one summer...
- Traveled across the US
 - 36 states (and counting!)
- Camp as a platform for a professional career
 - Interpersonal skills
 - Leadership
 - Communication
 - Inter-cultural competence
 - Resilience
 - Independence
- Career at QUB

A day in the life of a camp counselor

- 7:45 – Reveille!
- 8:15 – Breakfast with your campers
- 9:00 – Activities start
 - Morning Swim
 - Tennis
 - Arts and Ceramics
- 12:15 – Lunch
- 2:00pm – Afternoon activities start
 - Free swim
 - Baseball
 - Gymnastics
- 6:00pm – Dinner
- 7:00pm – Special Activity
- 8:00pm – Cabin time!
- 10:00pm – Lights out!

What makes a good camp counselor?

- Open-minded
- Empathetic
- Hard-working
- Genuine desire to work with kids
- Resilient

What to expect from the interview process

- Experience working with kids
 - Volunteering
 - Babysitting
 - Sports clubs
- Why you want to work at camp
 - What are you hoping to get from the experience – personally and professionally
 - What skills are you looking to develop
- Who you are
 - Strengths and weaknesses
 - Values
 - Aspirations
 - Why you would make a good role model for children

What you'll get in return

- Experience of a lifetime
 - Days and nights off – Boston, Portland, Portsmouth, State Parks, Beaches
 - Friends from all over the world
 - Opportunity for onward travel
- Personal and professional development
 - Content for every job interview you'll ever do!
 - Personalised development plan
- Opportunity to live and work in another country
- Sunshine!!

peter@campbirchmont.com

@piercecampbirchmont

