

Go Global Week 2020 Photo Competition

Again this year during Go Global Week we will be running our photo competition for students returning from an International study/work placements in 2019-20.

The Global Opportunities Office know that during your International placement experience you likely encountered beautiful and amazing surroundings, interesting people who became new friends and ultimately gained a local perspective on the city you travelled to.

The theme for our photo competition is: Student experiences in another part of the world: faces, places and life outside of Northern Ireland

Eligibility

- All students who participated in a Queen's University recognised International placement in the 2019-20 academic year on one of the following programmes: Erasmus, Study USA, University Exchange Programmes, Study China and Generation UK China.
- Students who have graduated since undertaking their placement abroad can still be considered.

Deadline: 4 October 2020

How to Enter

- Photo submissions must be original work (no professional photos will be accepted) and must have been taken by you during your international placement.
- Photos may be in colour, black and white, or sepia.
- Photo formats accepted are .jpg or .png.
- Ideal photo resolution should be 1240x1754pixels
- Email photos (2 maximum) to goglobal@qub.ac.uk with the subject "Photo Competition".

In your email include the following:

- First name, last name and student number
- Program (Exchange, Erasmus etc.)
- Location (university + city + country)
- Dates of your placement (Year, Semester 1, semester 2, summer)
- Include a short caption, around 50 words, to explain how your photo(s) represents student life in another part of the world.

Prizes

Photos will be evaluated based on quality, creativity and ability to capture the chosen theme, judges' decision is final.

2 winning entries will be selected and winners will receive a £50/€50 Ryanair gift voucher.

We look forward to seeing your amazing images!
