Student Declaration:

I give permission for my thesis to be made available, under regulations determined by the University, for inclusion in the University Library, consultation by readers in the School, inter-library lending for use in another library and to be photocopied, electronically reproduced and to be stored and made available publicly in electronic format

Please tick as appropriate:

i) Immediately

Or

ii) After an embargo period of 1 year 2 years 3 years 4 years 5 years

Reason for embargo: (applies to both print and e-thesis)

The thesis is due for publication, either as a series of articles or as a monograph

The thesis includes material that was obtained under a promise of confidentiality

Would substantially prejudice the commercial interests of the author, the University or an external company

Contains information which may endanger the physical/mental health or personal safety of an individual(s)

I wish to embargo the e-thesis copy permanently: (applies to e-thesis only)

The thesis contains material whose copyright belongs to a third party and the gaining of approval to publish the material electronically would be onerous or expensive; and the removal of the copyright material would compromise the thesis

CONFIRMATION OF DATA/HUMAN TISSUE SAMPLES HANDOVER

All research involving human participants, their tissue (e.g. blood, saliva, urine) or their data (interviews, consent forms, questionnaires) must be retained by the University for at least five years. These sources must be handed over to your supervisor. Please confirm, by ticking the appropriate box, that:

I have provided my supervisor with all laboratory notebooks and/or primary source material pertaining to the study, including electronic data.

I have identified for my supervisor the location of stored human tissue samples and provided an inventory of these.

Due to the nature of the project I am not required to handover any data or samples relating to my thesis.
