

WIDENING PARTICIPATION UNIT PRIVACY NOTICE

Queen's University Belfast ("we", "us" and "our") is committed to protecting your personal data. This notice is addressed to individuals who are users of our services, ("you" and "your"). This Privacy Notice tells you why we need to collect personal information about you, what we will do with it, and how we will look after it. It also tells you about your legal rights in relation to your Personal Data. If you have any questions about this privacy notice, please contact us. Contact details are provided below.

WHO WE ARE

1. We are Queen's University Belfast, a university with a reputation for excellence in education and research and a member of the Russell Group. Founded in 1845 as Queen's College Belfast, we became an independent university in 1908. This notice is in specific relation to the Widening Participation Unit, which is part of the Directorate of Academic and Student Affairs.

HOW YOUR PERSONAL DATA IS COLLECTED

2. Information you provide: When providing outreach programmes, activities and events we will ask for information about you, such as your name, address, phone number, school, etc. This is known as your "Personal Data". We may also ask you for some special categories of information (for example religion and information about your health). This is known as your "Sensitive Personal Data".
3. Data from other sources: We also collect information about you from other sources and this also forms part of "Personal Data". This includes information from:
  - We collect information about you from your school, your teachers and your parents.

HOW WE USE YOUR PERSONAL DATA

4. We use your Personal Data and Sensitive Personal Data in the following ways:
  - To provide you with regular contact communications
  - For organising and planning activities/events
  - Tracking your progress through the programme and monitoring your progress after the programme
  - To send you evaluation surveys on the programme attended.

LEGAL BASIS FOR COLLECTING AND USING YOUR PERSONAL DATA

5. We will only use your Personal Data if we have valid reasons for doing so. These reasons are known as our “legal basis for processing”. In certain circumstances we may ask for your consent to process your information. At other times we may be required to process your information to enable us to fulfil our part of the contract we have with you. There are circumstances where we have a legitimate interest to process your personal data, for example to provide you with a service which you have requested. The legal basis for processing your Personal Data is,
  - Article 6, 1 (e) - processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the controller or by a third party, except where such interests are overridden by the interests or fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject which require protection of personal data, in particular where the data subject is a child.

WHO WE SHARE YOUR DATA WITH

6. In line with our Data Protection Policy and Procedures we can share your information, including Personal Data and Sensitive Personal Data, with the following parties for the purposes set out above:
  - Your personal and sensitive data will not be shared with anyone outside of Queen’s University Belfast, without your express permission.

DATA PROCESSING OUTSIDE EUROPE

7. We will not transfer your Personal Data and Sensitive Personal Data outside of the European Economic Area.

HOW LONG YOUR INFORMATION WILL BE KEPT

8. We will keep your Personal Data and Sensitive Personal Data for up to 10 years from the date you completed one of the Widening Participation programmes. We will only keep your information if we need it for one of the reasons described above. We place great importance on the security of the Personal Data that we hold, including the use of physical, technological and organisational measures to ensure your information is protected from unauthorised access and against unlawful processing, accidental loss, alteration, disclosure, destruction and damage.

YOUR RIGHTS

9. The Data Protection Act 2018 provides you with a number of legal rights in relation to your Personal Data, including the right:
  - to request access to your Personal Data;
  - to request correction of your Personal Data that is wrong or incomplete;
  - to request erasure or the restriction of processing of your Personal Data;
  - to request the transfer of your Personal Data in a structured, commonly used machine-readable format;
  - not to be subject to automated decision making; and
  - to withdraw your consent.
10. If you wish to exercise any of the rights set out above, or require further information about any of the rights, please contact us.

11. Where we need to collect your Personal Data, whether for the purposes of providing a service you have requested or under the terms of a contract we have with you, and you fail to provide that information when requested, we may not be able to provide the service or perform the contract. We may, therefore, have to cancel the contract or the service we provide to you but we will notify you if this is the case at the time.
12. There may also be times where we cannot stop using your Personal Data when you ask us to, but we will tell you about this if you make a request.
