Day 3: 11th December
Day 4: 14th December

Master Your Leadership helps postgraduate students develop, enhance their personal skills and grow their networks. Students will complete the Kouzes and Posner online 360° Student Leadership Challenge (LPI) which will help tailor a personal development plan built around the five practices of exemplary leadership. Postgraduate Taught students will attend four days of training linked to The Graduate School's five pillars and take on an employer challenge.

The Employer Challenge is a real-world challenge that is set by an employer and relates to the work of that employer. The challenge is presented to the students as an experiential team based activity. Students create solutions to the challenge and present back to the employer for feedback, developing their skills of creativity and innovation, problem-solving, communication (including presentation skills) and team participation and leadership.

The programme offers recognition for postgraduate skills through the Graduate Plus award scheme.

Book now via our website to secure your place. Limited places available.

12th October: AHSS, 13.00pm - 17.00pm

Postgraduate Inductions

These workshops offer a chance for staff and students to engage with the work of major scholars, to discuss their work and the wider intellectual themes raised by that work.

COFFEE CATCH UP

Last Wednesday of each month from 10.00 am in the Social Space

Join fellow postgraduates for coffee in the Graduate School each month. This social gathering is a good platform for postgraduate students to take a break from their work, catch up with friends and expand their network whilst enjoying coffee and cakes. No registration necessary; just drop-in!

Are you new to the postgraduate community?
Come along for a tailored introduction to the School!

MINDFUL MEDITATION

A student-led initiative with meditation instructor Orla Wallace. Each class will integrate mindful movement, relaxation and seated meditation. Drop-in sessions are open to all postgraduates. No need to register.

Every Wednesday, 13.10 pm - 13.50 pm
Wellbeing Room, Main Site Tower (School of Law)

Proofreading

Follow us on social media for the latest event updates.

A peer-led student forum designed to help students in proofreading their academic work. It is an opportunity for cultural exchange to develop a network within the postgraduate community, and supporting each other to develop their proofreading skills.

DIGITAL DETOX

Digital detoxing for postgraduates encourages students to leave behind their technology for a night of activities focused on mindfulness, social interaction, drawing and gaming.

Follow us on social media for the latest event updates.

SHUT UP & WRITE

Every Monday, TR3, 13.00 pm - 16.00 pm.
Drop in sessions - no booking required

Shut Up & Write is a movement that started in San Francisco as a way for writers to structure their time and connect with others. It is a great way to carve out dedicated writing time and make progress on thesis chapters and assignments. The discipline and shared sense of purpose that comes from writing with others also keeps you accountable and reminds you that you aren't alone.

Healthy, and not so healthy, refreshments provided!

Postgraduate- Led Initiatives

Funding is available throughout the year to assist current postgraduate students in organising academic and cultural activities. These events work to bring together the wider communities within both Postgraduate Taught and Research programmes at Queen's University.

Application forms can be found online at: www.qub.ac.uk/graduate-school/community-connections/
