One of the longest established universities in the UK, Queen’s is ranked as one of the top 200 universities in the world and is situated at the heart of one of the most vibrant capital cities in Europe. When we launched Strategy 2030, we set out our commitment to shape a better world through life-changing education and research, investing in both students and staff to ensure excellence and impact. Our aim is to inspire you, the global citizens of tomorrow, by delivering a transformative education and student experience, offering flexible and broad-based learning opportunities, with wellbeing, inclusivity and cultural diversity at its centre.

Your time at Queen’s is not simply about receiving an education, it’s also about enjoying a unique, life-defining experience, and we want your experience to be wonderful and memorable. We want to equip you to be future leaders with the skillset needed to pre-empt and respond to local, national and global challenges. We ensure our students are internationally connected, benefitting from both a multi-cultural experience on campus and a range of global opportunities with our network of partners. In addition, 88% of Queen’s research and 99% of the research environment has been assessed as world-leading or internationally excellent².

Our educational programmes are increasingly focused on sustainability and the ethos of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) at a local, national and global level. The sports and library facilities we offer have been highly rated by students and our new central campus Student Centre and Students’ Union, One Elmwood, with over 200 clubs and societies, is the focal point for the delivery of integrated and holistic support services.

A dynamic and diverse city in which to study and work, Belfast is now a leading global location for investment projects and major developments in innovation and enterprise. The Belfast Region City Deal will unlock £1 billion of transformative co-investment and we are proud to be an innovation partner, leading projects in advanced manufacturing, clinical research and secure, connected digital technologies, linking into UK and all-Island networks.

Our beautiful, vibrant campus is located in the heart of the city, a cultural hub, with great food and a lively social life. Safe, fun, friendly and compact, Belfast is also one of the most affordable student cities in the UK³.

Our hope is that every undergraduate is enriched by their time at Queen’s University Belfast, and we look forward to welcoming you.

KEY DIFFERENCES

There are some key differences between higher education systems in the UK and the USA. One significant difference in Northern Ireland (also England and Wales) is that we have three year degrees, with applications and direct entry to your subject of choice, with no general education.

Northern Ireland occupies a unique place in the UK and Ireland. Geographically we are on the island of Ireland, but politically and economically we are part of the United Kingdom – which we like to think gives us the best of both worlds!

GETTING HERE

Belfast is served by two airports – Belfast International (BFS) and Belfast City (BHD), both which offer connecting routes to all major UK and European airports. We also have Dublin airport just 90 minutes away, which offers direct routes to a wide range of North American destinations.

The world is catching on to the secret that locals have always known: Northern Ireland is one of the most beautiful places on the planet. Just ask the experts at Lonely Planet who recently lauded Belfast and the Causeway Coast as the No.1 region in the world to visit in 2018 (Lonely Planet 2017). From golden beaches to lush forests, as a student in Belfast, the region’s most breathtaking landscapes will be right on your doorstep.

Spend your downtime testing your nerve crossing the death-defying Carrick-a-Rede rope bridge. Alternatively, scale the heights of our tallest peak, Slieve Donard, set in the picturesque Mourne Mountains – an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and the inspiration for C.S. Lewis’ magical world of Narnia.

You can also follow the 22-mile Mourne Wall, featured in Game of Thrones. And if you’re a fan of the hit HBO show, you can’t afford to miss a trip to the Dark Hedges. This twisted avenue of light and shade is one of Northern Ireland’s most photographed natural phenomena, and doubles as the King’s Road in the series.

Well worth the road trip for the spectacular Antrim Coast Road drive alone, the Giant’s Causeway, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is a must. There are also plenty of stunning beaches to enjoy a lazy Sunday walk – some just 25 minutes from Belfast.

If adrenaline thrills are your thing, the lakes, waterways and beaches of the region offer outdoor fun to suit everyone – from Sea Safaris on Strangford Lough, where you might spot seals, porpoises or a basking shark, to the north Atlantic surf off the coast at Portrush, ranked among the best in the world.

Northern Ireland: outdoor adventure

Whether you’re on a pilgrimage to the famous Game of Thrones filming locations or you fancy exploring caves, castles and coastline, you’ll find it all within an hour’s drive of Belfast.

You’re going to love it here. So make yourself at home. Belfast is a modern capital city, welcoming, easy to get around and an affordable place in which to live and study.

As Belfast flourishes as a global food, culture, arts and shopping destination, Queen’s is at the social and cultural heart of the city.

BELFAST:
FRIENDLY
AFFORDABLE

CULTURE
Belfast is a city of artists, poets, writers and musicians who are celebrated in arts venues, such as The MAC and the Black Box. Double Major-winning golfer Rory McIlroy and Hollywood star Jamie Dornan grew up in the appropriately-named Holywood, just outside the city, and Kenneth Branagh, Academy-award nominated actor and director, was also born here. A capital with a culture of its own, Belfast is renowned for having a unique clubs, cuisine, culture and arts scene of its very own, including the Kremlin, Belfast’s famed Soviet-style nightclub, with a reputation as the best gay venue in Ireland. Throughout the year, Belfast hosts a range of events and urban festivals from music, theatre, dance, film and comedy. Highlights include Culture Night and Belfast Vital Festival.

Food is a big deal in Belfast with a mix of cool new pop-ups and Michelin-starred staples. The city was voted the Top Place to Travel for Food (National Geographic 2016). Northern Ireland and the Titanic Studios have become internationally renowned as a film location too, most famously for HBO’s Game of Thrones.

Belfast is a city with real personality and is well-known for having the friendliest and most welcoming folk in the world. In a city famed for its humour, you can catch regular stand-up comedy nights at Belfast’s Empire Comedy Club, where Queen’s alumna Paddy Kielty’s career began.

MUSIC MATTERS
From the punk scene in the 1970s to the MTV Europe Music Awards in 2011 alongside traditional folk sessions, Belfast has passionately embraced the uniting power of music. The Oh Yeah Music Centre is a hub for bands and creative types and a safe house for moos and rockers. At night, the cobblestoned streets and fascinating architecture of the Cathedral Quarter play host to the city’s best bars and clubs and intimate live music venues, such as The Sunflower, Snow Patrol, Van Morrison and Soft Little Fingers all got started in Belfast.

More money for the things that count
Belfast was found to have the lowest student rent in the UK in 2020 (NatWest Student Living Index). The average student here also only spends £16 a week on food shopping, well below the national average of £24.

Getting around
Belfast is best explored on foot or by bike. Most students spend the majority of their time on foot and walking to the city centre takes no more than 10-15 minutes. The city is well connected by frequent bus and train services, with student travel discounts widely available. The Belfast Bikes public bicycle rental scheme provides a flexible way to get around Belfast.

Number one region in the world to visit in 2018
Belfast is one of Europe’s most hip and vibrant capital cities – just ask the experts at Lonely Planet who love the city for its energy, lively atmosphere, and ‘dynamic young population that keeps the city on trend’.

The beauty is that it’s all packed into a compact city that’s easy and safe to explore.

Gateway
Belfast is the gateway to the rest of Northern Ireland and beyond and has been lauded by Michael Palin for having the world’s most beautiful railway. From coastline to mountain, adventure awaits you.

Belfast and the Causeway Coast named the Number 1 Region in the world to visit in 2018 (Lonely Planet, 2017)

US STUDENTS AT QUEEN’S

Queen’s has been welcoming US students to Belfast for decades, with around 200 US students enrolling every year on a variety of undergraduate, graduate and short-term study abroad programmes. US students choose Queen’s for a variety of reasons – the chance to study a focused three year Bachelors degree, the lower cost of studying and living, or reconnecting with their heritage on the island of Ireland.

Moving internationally makes everything feel like an adventure. Tasks that used to be mundane – such as finding local grocery stores, taking public transportation, exchanging currency, hearing different accents – are all suddenly new and exciting, though sometimes rather anxiety-inducing.

For me, my adventures in Belfast didn’t truly start until I heard a knock on my door one random afternoon. My neighbour, a fellow international student, brought over desserts from her home country as a welcome gift. It was this unexpected act of kindness and our mutual desire to travel that blossomed into a beautiful friendship. From then on, we became close friends, going on walks throughout the city, exploring the nearby areas whenever our schedules aligned, and sharing food from our different countries’ cuisines.

Our first adventure in Belfast was to Cavehill, a 360 metre hill and roughly 4.5 mile hike with lush forests, basalt rocks and caves, and gorgeous panoramic views of the city. We loved the hike so much that we returned the next weekend with a picnic blanket and lunch, only to have an unexpected snow flurry that made us hurry back down the hill!

On our most recent excursion, my neighbour and I decided to get out of Belfast and explore the surrounding areas. With a train station located so close to our Queen’s accommodation in Elms BTP, Northern Ireland is so accessible, even for two foreigners who had no idea how to get around at first. On this first adventure outside of the city, we went to Bangor in County Down to visit the ocean. Here, we took a five mile hike along a beautiful coastline path where we were able to dip our toes in the waters of the Belfast Lough and have a picnic on the white sandy beaches.

There are many opportunities to travel and explore as well as plenty of likeminded students here at Queen’s who share similar interests. My adventures with my neighbour and my life in Northern Ireland are just beginning, but so far the random spring snow flurries and finding shelves on the coast have made my time in Northern Ireland truly memorable.

MEGAN STITH
BA International Politics and Conflict Studies, LLM Human Rights Law
Chester, VA

I came to Queen’s in 2016 to study International Politics and Conflict Studies. I was drawn to this course because of the expertise, the flexibility, and the range of subjects I could study. Through my course, I have met leading activists and been involved in my local community, participating in events such as Pride, Mental Health Awareness Week, and International Women’s Day. I ultimately chose to study at Queen’s because the courses are designed to allow students to tailor their learning experience to their individual needs and goals.

In coming to Belfast, I gained so much more than just a degree. I made a home here, with my favourite cafes and bars, spending all afternoon in the Botanic Gardens and Ormeau Park, and dancing the night away in Belfast’s nightclubs. Belfast is the perfect size: easy to get around on foot, on bicycle, or by bus, but large enough to have an adventure every day. The bustling music scene, local businesses, and beautiful street art makes the city feel like a visit with an old friend. And if you have a travel bug, it’s incredibly easy to get around the whole island of Ireland and beyond! My friends and I have travelled around the country, from the Giant’s Causeway to Galway. I’ve been to Scotland, England, Germany, and France – all for an affordable price! But no matter where I go, my heart will always be here in Northern Ireland.

NIAMH STEWART
BA International Relations
Donners Grove, IL

I decided to study in Northern Ireland after visiting Queen’s and liking the course, the campus, and the city. I’ve really enjoyed my course and the opportunity to focus on my studies; whereas in the US I would’ve had to take general education classes, at Queen’s I’m able to just study international relations and politics. I appreciate the focus of my degree path and I’m a more motivated and passionate student because of it. I also love that my degree included a placement opportunity where I was able to gain real work experience in the Irish civil service! My time at Queen’s has been so fulfilling, both through my coursework and through the people I’ve met here. The clubs and societies I joined in my first year, like orchestra and debate, have added an invaluable social aspect to my degree.

I’ve loved living in Belfast the past three years! It’s a great ‘cheap city’ which means I can do and see a lot even while on a student budget. It doesn’t break the bank to go out to a cafe or restaurant. The food is one of my favourite things about Belfast; super cool restaurants and plenty of sweet treats mean there’s always a reason to go on a walk and explore! My favourite Belfast activities include a Friday night hockey game at the SSE Arena, checking out HIll Street Hatch’s newest pop-up, and seeing a film at the QFT. I always look forward to Belfast’s multiple annual events too, like Culture Night and Outburst! And outside of Belfast, Northern Ireland is absolutely beautiful and travelling into the Republic of Ireland is super easy, so there’s been plenty of opportunity for further travel, like to the beautiful West Coast.

If you want to connect with current US students at Queen’s, you can do so through the Unibuddy platform on the Queen’s website at qub.ac.uk/study-chat-with-students

“Thanks to QUB, I have been able to pursue my learning passions and to find new ones alongside a diverse group of students, teachers, and guest speakers.”

Queen’s University Belfast

Queen’s University Belfast
It is common in the US for tuition fees to be tied to the amount of credits you’re taking in an academic year, but at Queen’s your tuition cost is tied to your major. Your credit load is fixed each year, so you won’t find yourself in the position of reaching your graduation date and still needing to take (and pay for) extra credits or classes. The tuition fees you see are the actual cost you will pay.

FINANCING YOUR STUDIES AT QUB

FEES AND FUNDING
We know that going to university is a huge investment, so at Queen’s we do everything we can to be transparent about the costs of studying and living in Northern Ireland.

Remember - most of our majors are only three years long, so you’re automatically saving a year of tuition and living costs! You don’t need to buy textbooks! At Queen’s we have an award-winning library, where students can borrow all their required texts for free. Books generally are much cheaper in Northern Ireland, so if there is a book you really want your own copy of, you can probably pick it up for less than £50.

YOUR ADMISSIONS JOURNEY

Research – choosing your major

- At universities in the UK (except Scotland!), you go directly into your major on day one. If you’re a student who knows what you want to study, this gives you a great opportunity to focus on the things you want to learn about – with no required general education classes.
- This does mean that the first step in your admissions journey is making sure you pick the right course. Don’t worry though, there are loads of great resources to help you choose:
  - University websites and brochures (like this one!)
  - UCAS Subject Guides (ucas.com/explore/subjects)
  - International advisors (like our very own North America team)

ADMISSIONS PHILOSOPHY AT QUB

UK university admissions are centered on the concept of academic merit and potential. With our three year degree programmes, we want to know that our students are prepared academically to meet the challenges of their chosen subject head on – so our entry requirements focus on the capability of an applicant to succeed primarily in the classroom as evidenced in their prior academic attainment and focus of study if there are subject specific requirements. We want all of our students to be able to thrive in the learning environment we provide and our approach to admissions is designed to support this goal.

What we consider

- Your academic record – in the form of your high school transcript and any tests and academic achievements
- Your academic suitability – in the form of demonstrated knowledge and understanding of the subject area, and your personality as a student

What we don’t consider

- Institutional fit – we don’t consider class rankings or balance at Queen’s, just individual merit of each applicant
- Demonstrated interest – we’d love it if you were able to visit the campus, join our open days or speak to our team – but it has no bearing on your admissions decision
- Legacy – there is no weight applied to legacy candidates
- Unrelated extra-curricular activities – things like athletic achievement and musical ability are great, but if it isn’t relevant to your major or your potential as student, it won’t play a role in our decision making

How we assess our applicants – the components of your application

Academic background

- Transcripts, exams taken and exams you plan to take – these are used to evaluate your academic suitability

Personal statement

- This is used to assess your understanding of the subject area, and for you to demonstrate why you would make a good student at QUB

Letter of recommendation

- This is a chance for your teachers or counsellor to give us a better idea of who you are as a student

HOW TO APPLY

There are two ways to apply to Queen’s as an international student: UCAS and Direct Application

UCAS

- UCAS Application is the centralised application system for UK universities – similar in purpose to the Common App in the US
- All applications are done through the UCAS website (ucas.com)
- Through UCAS, you are able to apply to a maximum of five universities or courses – which is why the research stage of your admissions journey is so important.
- There is a small fee to apply – £27.50 for up to five.
- The application deadline for most courses is June 30th
- The application deadline for Medicine and Dentistry is October 15th

Direct Applications

- We also accept Direct Applications for students who are not applying through UCAS to other UK universities. This is important – you can’t do both!
- The deadline for Direct Applications is also June 30th
- Direct Applications are free!

Common App and how it ties into UCAS

- Some UK universities are on the Common App – but we are not. It is strongly recommended that you use UCAS to apply to the UK and stick to your five course limit – applying to extra universities through the Common App can lead to complications later in the admissions cycle if you accept multiple offers.

UCAS – YOUR NEW BEST FRIEND!

The UCAS website is a fantastic resource for all stages of your admissions journey. From helping you to decide on a major, to useful tips and videos explaining how to write a great personal statement – it’s full of great advice about how to build a successful application for studying in the UK. Check it out at ucas.com

If you’ve applied through UCAS, you’ll be able to view the decisions as they come in through your UCAS Hub account. This is where you registered and made your application to us. Your UCAS Hub account is your go to place for information on the status of your offer with us at Queen’s. Once you have all your responses (Unconditional Offers, Conditional Offers or Rejections), you’ll need to make a Firm (or first ranked) choice and an Insurance (or second ranked) choice. You will be required to reject any other offers, other than those two choices. Your Firm choice should be the place you most want to go, and your Insurance choice is a back up – in case you don’t meet the conditions for your Firm choice. If you’ve applied directly to Queen’s, we’ll have emailed you with your offer letter. You just need to reply to our admissions office to let them know if you’d like to Accept or Reject the offer. More details are on the website at qub.ac.uk/Study/Undergraduate/offer-holders/your-application-what-next/
Queen's University Belfast

STEP 1
CHECK OUT OUR OPTIONS
You may have a set career in mind – so start by looking at what courses are the best for you. But if you don’t know just yet, that’s fine. In that case we suggest you find something you want to study. Remember that all Queen’s degrees have our dedication to graduate employability built in!

STEP 2
COME TO OUR OPEN DAYS*
There’s no better way to get a feel for Queen’s than by coming to see us. Open Days are your best bet – you’ll be able to see the campus, our accommodation, our Students’ Union and our study facilities, but also speak to lecturers and current students about what it’s really like to live and study here.

If you can’t make any of our Open Days, we’d be happy to arrange a campus visit for you – just get in touch.

STEP 3
APPLY
If you want to study here – and we hope you do – then apply via UCAS from early September 2023*.

STEP 4
COME TO OUR POTENTIAL STUDENT EVENTS
After you’ve applied for a course(s) at Queen’s, we’ll invite you to one of our potential student events, where you’ll meet Queen’s staff and students and chat about your course(s) of interest.

STEP 5
ACCEPT YOUR OFFER
Accept your offer by making Queen’s your Firm choice. ‘You won’t regret it – just ask our current students!’

STEP 6
APPLY FOR ACCOMMODATION
A guaranteed place in Queen’s accommodation with living options including same-sex living, no-alcohol living and quiet living (T&Cs apply, application must be completed by 30 June 2024, see website for further details). The online application opens in January 2024.

STEP 7
RESULTS
The most nerve-wracking stage – your exams may be a distant memory, but the Big Day is here. We wish you all good luck – and if you get the results you need, then we’ll see you soon.

STEP 8
WELCOME TO QUEEN’S
You’ll register for your course in September 2024. During your first weeks, we’ll extend the famously warm Northern Ireland welcome through informal workshops, parties, quizzes and other fun events – just to help break the ice and make settling in that bit easier. Freshers’ Week, before classes start, is your chance to find out about all the clubs, societies and extras that launch you into your new life, and of course to make friends, relax and enjoy yourself!

We’ll also let you know about key events like our Open Days, which allow you to get a sense of what life at Queen’s is really like, as well as our events for potential students, which give you a chance to find out more about the courses that interest you.

ENROLLMENT AND REGISTRATION

This will include your Queen’s University email account, student number and credentials for logging on to Qsis, the University’s Student Information System. During registration, you must provide documentary proof of your qualifications and an approved form of photographic identification eg a current passport. International students will be required to provide passport and satisfactory visa information before they can enrol. All students will be asked at enrolment to confirm that they will abide by the Terms and Conditions which are sent to them as part of their offer off a place at the University.

We want to make your journey to becoming a student at Queen’s as easy as possible. In the following section, we’ll tell you all you need to know about the application process, your funding options and meeting our entrance requirements to make sure you’re suitably prepared for your chosen course(s) at Queen’s.

SU CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

Why not make the most of your time at Queen’s by joining one of our 165 societies or 55 clubs? There are so many reasons to get involved but many students find it’s a great way to make friends and meet like-minded people. They give you a little bit more: more fun, more time to be part of something; more time to find out about you.

Many courses have related societies, but they do much more than discuss what happened in your latest lecture – including organising social events and fundraisers. Academic societies can also help enhance your studies and your career opportunities in the process.

Not sure what to go for? Check out our A-Z list: Q-SU.org/clubsandsocs

Arts, culture, and language

Learn a new language and more about a foreign culture or simply meet up with students from the same part of the world as you. Our multicultural societies include the African and Caribbean Society, the Chinese Students Association, and the South Asian Students Society. In our inclusive campus environment, you’ll have the opportunity to meet other students with shared interests and make new friends from across the globe.

MEET THE PRESIDENTS

The Robotics Society is one of the most exciting societies at Queen’s. From Programming classes to cool robot wrestling competitions, we’re involved in all kinds of exciting activities. We welcome students with all skill levels in robotics – you don’t need to have a STEM or Computer Science background to join us.

Queen’s Music Society is open to all students who wish to either start or continue playing a musical instrument alongside their degree. We offer a wide range of ensembles, groups, performances and social events such as formals and karaoke nights for all our members. Our band scheme, which matches up musically minded students around campus, has been a great success.

As chair of the committee, I have seen first hand how our society has helped members develop new musical skills and has allowed people to meet a range of new friends.

We are proud to promote an Active Campus with initiatives and programmes that are open to all abilities and we empower you to find your level and find your game at Queen’s Sport.

SPORTS FANS

Belfast offers a wealth of choice for sports fans and spectators, whether you fancy a night at the rugby, a Belfast Giants ice hockey game, a soccer match or a fast-paced Gaelic football or hurling match. The Belfast City Marathon attracts 20,000 participants from around the world every year.

A BALANCED STUDENT ATHLETE EXPERIENCE

Being a student athlete at Queen’s is very different from NCAA colleges in the US. Our athletes are first and foremost high performing students, with a support structure dedicated to ensuring success inside and outside the classroom.

Since our foundation in 1845, sport has played an important part in the Queen’s student experience. We’re one of the premier sporting universities in the UK and Ireland and our Gameplan and Active Campus initiatives set the goal of sport for all - whatever the level.

We host a weekly ParkRun at our Outdoor Sporting Facility at Upper Malone and our annual Deep RiverRock 5K race, which attracts thousands of recreational runners. We have also recently launched an Active Campus initiative with sporting activities and programmes to suit everyone – no matter what your fitness level.

Our Scholarship programmes are just one of many ways you can enhance your experience at Queen’s through the Degree Plus scheme.

ACADEMIES
Queen’s Sport work with student clubs, governing bodies and alumni networks to develop our sporting academies. Currently there are five academies – Rugby, GAA, Soccer, Rowing and Hockey – with more than thirty five teams and six hundred students competing each year as part of our Performance Pathway.
We created these academies to provide a high performance culture within each sport, but also to promote recreational and community initiatives. Many sporting legends have graced the Queen’s jersey with pride. We’ve named Rugby and GAA Academy scholarships in honour of:
• Sean O’Neill (Gaelic Football)
• Jack Kyle (Rugby)
• Henry Downey (Hurling)
There are also Hockey, Rowing and Soccer Academy scholarships distributed annually.
In recent years, Queen’s have supported athletes competing in top-level competitions in over twenty countries, including Olympics, Paralympics, World University Championships, European Athletics Championships and US Open Swimming Championships.

SPORTS BURSARIES
Our Sports Bursaries provide support for those non-academy athletes who are developing in their chosen sport. They also support students to compete nationally and on the world stage.
