

Lessons Learned from the Northern Ireland Peace Process: A conceptual and practical look into the Peace Treaty Initiative

📅 October 19, 2022 ⌚ 9:00 - 12:30 UK Time 📍 Queen's University Belfast, Moot Court

The Peace Treaty Initiative is a major global undertaking on the development of a multilateral treaty designed to incentivise parties to violent conflicts to choose the pathway of negotiation in order to help prevent wars and atrocities in the first place, and to end them once underway.

This special public event, organised jointly by the Senator George J. Mitchell Institute for Global Peace, Security and Justice of Queen's University Belfast and the Institute for Integrated Transitions \(IFIT\), offers a unique opportunity to: a) learn first-hand about the main achievements and challenges with regards to the implementation of the Belfast/Good Friday Agreement; b) consider those alongside the indicative text of the Peace Treaty Initiative; and c) actively participate in the Q&A session during each panel.

There is limited space available. Please register here to join us for this special in-person event.

Agenda

09:00 - 09:15 Welcome and introductions

Richard English

09:15 - 09:25 Brief overview of the Peace Treaty Initiative

Mark Freeman

09:25 - 10:45 Political achievements and challenges at the domestic and international level -- NI lessons for the Peace Treaty Initiative

Louise Mallinder
(Moderator)

Mark Freeman

Maria-Adriana Deiana

Dominic Bryan

10:45 - 11:15 Coffee break

11:15 - 12:30 Legal and institutional achievements and challenges at the domestic and international level -- NI lessons for the Peace Treaty Initiative

Richard English
(Moderator)

Mariana Casij P

Chris McCrudden

John Topping