Dr Leonie Hannan

Lecturer, History - School of History, Anthropology, Philosophy and Politics

I arrived at QUB in 2015 as a Research Fellow and I was confirmed in post as a Lecturer in the School of History, Anthropology, Philosophy and Politics in 2018. Since joining the University, I have made efforts to contribute to making it a better working environment by participating on School committees, becoming a member of Academic Council and fulfilling the role of Equalities Officer for the local UCU committee. I would, therefore, join Senate with an early career perspective combined with substantial experience of feeding into institution-level policy-making at QUB.
