Dissemination of Results

Day 1-
Food Fraud Detectives: Investigative methods

- Date: 21st February 2017
- Location: Elmwood Hall Queen's University Belfast Elmwood Mews, Belfast

- 12:50 pm – Welcome

- 1-3 pm – Presentations on:
  - Mapping the beef chain
  - Risk ranking
  - Social Network Analysis Methods
  - Herb Fraud: The Oregano Story

- 3:30 pm – Break

- 4-6 pm – Presentations on:
  - Regulating Methods for Food Fraud
  - Innovations in fish fraud detection
  - Ethnographic fieldwork in legal grey areas of food production
  - Designing survey questions on food-related issues

Day 2-
Food Fraud Risk and Resilience along the Food Chain

- Date: 22nd February 2017
- Location: Elmwood Hall Queen's University Belfast Elmwood Mews, Belfast

- 10 am – Welcome

- 10.10-12.30 pm – Presentations on :
  - Integrated Supply Network Systems
  - Beef Supply: Risk and Mitigation
  - Risks in seafood supply chains
  - Food journeys – what do people know and care about?

- 12:30 pm – Lunch

- 1:30- 3:15 pm – Presentations on:
  - How to stop Food Fraud Legally
  - Passion, trust and audit in Italian Food Chains
  - Do consumers trust their food?

- 3:15 pm - Coffee/Tea & Biscuits

Speakers from: Queen's University Belfast, Manchester University, International Meat Traders Association, Young's Seafood, NatCen.