How do I get there?

Elms is located just a 20-minute walk from Belfast city centre and just 5 minutes from the INTO Centre and University teaching buildings.

From the airports:

- George Best Belfast City airport – 20 minutes by taxi direct from the airport
- Belfast International Airport – 40 minutes by taxi or direct bus from the airport to Belfast City Centre

From the City Centre:

- Regular Metro bus services run from the City Centre along Bus Route 8. Buses cost roughly £1.50 each way. Journeys take roughly 10 minutes from the city centre to QUB.

Facilities:

Elms is located in Belfast's Queen's Quarter, one of Belfast's most affluent and lively neighbourhoods and home to many QUB students. As such it is home to many café's, bars and restaurants on Stranmillis Road, Botanic Avenue and Lisburn Road, all less than ten minutes away on foot.

There are a number of supermarkets close to Elms and the INTO Centre including an Asian supermarket.

Getting around Belfast

Belfast is best explored on foot or by bike, and our central campus means that most places are within a short walking distance.

The Belfast Bikes public bicycle rental scheme provides a flexible way to get around Belfast.

When can I arrive and what do I do?

Your course starts on the 25th of June. You can access your accommodation from the 23rd of June, 2018. If you are due to arrive before this date you will need to check with the centre on availability of your room. There will be an additional charge for this. Please email psequb@intoglobal.com to enquire.

To access your accommodation, you will need to proceed directly to Elms Student Village and go to the main reception where you can pick up your keys.
