

Professor Liam Murray Cancer Epidemiology Symposium 2023

Innovations in Pancreatic Cancer Research

12:30pm	Registration
1pm	Buffet lunch, Isdell Courtyard, Riddel Hall QUB
1.30 pm	Welcome Professor Helen Coleman, Cancer Epidemiology Research Group, QUB
2-3pm	Session 1: Local Research Excellence and Collaboration in partnership with NIPANC NI Pancreatic Cancer Audit: measuring the quality of care for patients diagnosed in 2019 and 2020 Mr Ivan McMinn, MBE, NIPANC Chairman Mrs Sinéad Hawkins, NI Cancer Registry Mr Stephen McCain, Belfast Health and Social Care Trust
3-3:20pm	Tea and Coffee Break
3:20-4:20pm	Session 2: Global Research Excellence and Collaboration This session will showcase an invited guest and international leader in cancer epidemiology from another institution, in recognition of the many national and international collaborations established and developed by Professor Liam Murray. Professor Núria Malats, Spanish National Cancer Research Centre, Madrid, Spain
4:20-4:50pm	Session 3: Global Research Excellence and celebrating our Early Career Research Alumni Dr Michael O'Rorke, University of Iowa, USA
4.50-5pm	Reflections and close
5-6pm	Drinks reception with interactive NIPANC Pancreatic Cancer Awareness Game, hosted by Dr Gary Mitchell, School of Nursing and Midwifery, Queen's University Belfast