

CANCER IN ARMAGH AND DUNGANNON GP FEDERATION

This area has by far the highest incidence of uterine cancer (38 per 100,000 compared to 30 across all NI)

Cancer is less common in Armagh and Dungannon GPF than in all NI.

Average cases 2011-15:

497 Armagh and Dungannon GPF

9,073 Northern Ireland

Cancers diagnosed per 100,000 people

Late diagnosis is much more likely for lung cancer than other cancers.

Known stage at diagnosis for cancers in A&D GP Federation (2011-15)

Almost 1 in 3 lung cancer cases (32%) were diagnosed in people of working age.

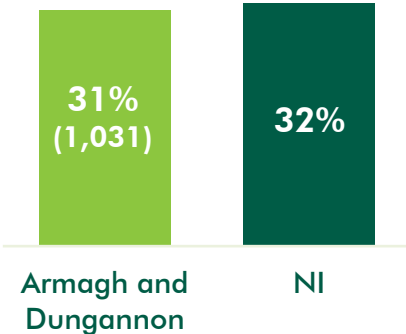

This is the highest rate of all GP Federations and significantly higher than the rate for all NI (26%).

3,282 people living with cancer up to 23 years at end of 2015 (58,586 NI).

WE ARE MACMILLAN. CANCER SUPPORT

Proportion at 1-5 years since diagnosis

23-year prevalence by age (A&D GPF outer ring, NI inner)

- <55 years
- 55-64 years
- 65-74 years
- 75-84 years
- 85+ years

