

N. Ireland Cancer Registry Implications of Research for Services

NICR Lead Author Dr Anna Gavin (Office use only)
Paper ID 2016-02 (Office use only)
Date Submitted to NICR Steering Group 14/11/2016 (Office use only)

Paper Title	Delivering a research-enabled multistakeholder partnership for enhanced patient care at a population level: The Northern Ireland Comprehensive Cancer Program.
Authors	Lawler M, Gavin A, Salto-Tellez M, Kennedy RD, Van Schaeybroeck S, Wilson RH, Harkin DP, Grayson M, Boyd RE, Hamilton PW, McArt DG, James J, Robson T, Ladner RD, Prise KM, O'Sullivan JM, Harrison T, Murray L, Johnston PG, Waugh DJ.
Journal	Cancer. 2016 Mar 1;122(5):664-73.
DOI	doi: 10.1002/cncr.29814
Funders	Within existing resources Supported by Cancer Research UK, Medical Research Council UK, Prostate Cancer UK, European Commission Framework VII, and Invest Northern Ireland.
Full paper available online	YES <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> NO <input type="checkbox"/> NOT YET <input type="checkbox"/>
Conclusion	This describes the changes to cancer services in Northern Ireland and the value of the NICR.
What this means for the service	Nil.