

BSc (Hons) in Psychological Trauma Studies

The School of Nursing and Midwifery at Queen's University Belfast, in partnership with WAVE Trauma Centre (WAVE), intends to offer the above Pathway of Study in 2017

The aim of this Programme of Study, which is multidisciplinary in nature, is to develop the skills and knowledge of practitioners, who work in the field of psychological trauma, including those who work with victims/survivors of “the troubles”.

Application forms for this degree are available from the Queen's School of Nursing & Midwifery website—www.qub.ac.uk/nur. Closing dates for applications is Wednesday 30th August 2017 with study due to commence in September 2017.

An open day for shortlisted candidates will be held on Thursday 7th September 2017

Programme Duration— 4 years part-time
Tuition Fees - £1,599 per year

WAVE Trauma Centre will be supporting this Degree Programme with a bursary package for the duration of the Course. Bursary information and interview date will sent out to candidates awarded a place on the Course. If you require further information please contact trauma.education@wavetrauma.org