

Cross-sector partnerships for palliative and end-of-life care research

Why cross-sector partnerships?

- Growing capacity and momentum for palliative and end-of-life care research in Northern Ireland
- Historically underfunded – especially research council money
- The central importance of patients, clients, and their families
- The crucial contribution of charitable, public, and university sectors to research and service provision

The conference

- Food and safety
- Morning: focus on funding
- Afternoon: strategic direction for research, the experience of patients engaging with the research process, and working in palliative care during the pandemic
- Posters: do look!
