

DIVISIONS and REPAIR

QUB|UCT|FUNAAB CONFERENCE: PROGRAMME OUTLINE

African Postgraduate Conference | April 20, 2023

Initiated by the Africa workgroup, School of History, Anthropology, Philosophy and Politics (HAPP), Queen's University Belfast, United Kingdom

Time	Presentation	Presenter
10:00-10:10	WELCOME
IDENTITY, DIVISIONS, AND REPAIR
10:10-10:30	Understanding Sanitation through the Lens of Caste	Deepshikha Upadhyay University of Allahabad, India
10:30-10:50	Is the Census Too Racist? Identity Categories and the Othering of Roma	Sydney Holt Queen's University Belfast, United Kingdom
10:50-11:10	Diskurs, Truth and Co-responsibility: Could we address the reasons for socio-economic issues in developing countries or within the peripheries of developed ones?	Antonio Pio De Mattia University College Dublin, Ireland
NATIONS AND POSSIBILITIES OF REPAIR
11:10-11:30	Managing Crises Multilaterally: a critical examination of multilateral approaches to crisis management in the Sahel and beyond	Stephen Murray Queen's University Belfast, United Kingdom
11:30-11:50	Legal Pluralism Induced Marginalization: Critical reflection of the poverty outcomes of large-scale mining in Ghana	Benjamin Kwao Trinity College Dublin, the University of Dublin, Ireland
11:50-12:10	Postwar Nation-building and Feminist Jus Post Bellum: The Biafran Case	Femi Omotoyinbo Queen's University Belfast, United Kingdom
12:10-12:20	BREAK
GUEST LECTURE
12:20-12:45	The Prospects and Pitfalls of Theorizing Africa	Prof. Adeshina Afolayan University of Ibadan, Nigeria
POLITICS, CULTURE, AND IDENTITY
12:45-13:05	Cultural Identity in the Face of Cultural Devastation	Awongwa Gcelu Rhodes University, South Africa

13:05-13:25	Traditional festival and political stability in Yoruba communities Aje' festival in Ìbògùn-Òwu Kingdom	Sunday Owoade Queen's University Belfast, United Kingdom
13:25-13:45	Staying 'on air' in exile: the changing practice, norms, and values of exile journalism from Burundi and Eritrea	Louisa Esther Mugabo University College Cork, Ireland
13:45-13:50	BREAK
VIOLENCE AND MARGINALISATION
13:50-14:10	War as Paradigm of Patriarchy?	Maria Giulia Molinaro PhD Researcher, Ireland
14:10-14:30	Equality	Alao Adesola Ibraheem The Federal University of Agriculture, Abeokuta, Nigeria
14:30-14:50	Violence is Necessary but Unjustifiable: Camus' Account of the Permissibility of Violence	Gideon Owogeka Onah Rhodes University, South Africa
VOTES OF THANKS

For queries or further information contact: AfricanPGconference@qub.ac.uk