

Specialist Training Posts with Academic Training Opportunities at Queen's University

We are seeking highly motivated, enthusiastic individuals wishing to excel in both clinical and academic training and who have the ambition to be the next generation of leading academic clinicians. Applications are now invited for Academic Clinical Fellowship (ACF) and Academic Clinical Lecturers (ACL) at ST3 level or above within any discipline.

Applicants should complete the application form stating the reasons for their preferred choice of discipline. Further information and application forms are available at: <http://www.qub.ac.uk/mdbs/Study/ClinicalAcademicTraining>
