

NICILT Post-Primary French Teachers Day (21/2/20) – The Senate Room, Queen’s University Belfast

Destination: La Francophonie- Cinema, Collaborative Learning, the DELF approach and TV5 Monde

0900- 0930    Arrival/ Registration
0930-0945    Introductions
0945-1045    1. Lessons from French Studies at Queen’s University Belfast.
Comme au cinéma. Motivate your students to explore French film resources online. Dr. Dominique Jeannerod (QUB)	Schemes of Work don’t always need to be about routine topics and grammar! This session will introduce you to free web resources to bring French cinema alive in your classroom. It will focus on how to encourage students to navigate 125 years of film history, from the Lumière brothers and Méliès to contemporary French and Francophone Film directors. Based on experience of working with undergraduate students, Dominique will use real examples and discuss ways to encourage pupils to find, select and analyse film scenes and develop their own appreciation of French cinema.	Dr Dominique Jeannerod is a Senior Lecturer in French Studies at Queen's University, where he teaches French Culture and Cinema at all levels. He has published numerous articles and books on French popular culture and directed the AHRC project Visualizing Crime Fiction. He is currently a co-investigator in the European Union project - Detecting Transcultural Identity in European Popular Crime Narratives (DETECT)
Collaborate to motivate: Working with partners in France Dr. Ashley Harris (QUB)	This session will provide a practical introduction to how to engage students through collaborations and exchanges with partners in France. Building on her experience of working with Beginners' French students at QUB, Ashley will look at ways to	Dr Ashley Harris is currently a Lecturer in French Studies at QUB. She has experience of working with children and adults from au pair work and teaching in a lycée to leading University modules. She teaches languages at all levels at QUB from

	motivate students through exchange activities and peer assessment in collaboration with students in France.	beginners to final year French as well as cultural modules on areas such as Migrant Studies, the Digital Age and Popular Culture.
1045- 1130	2. eTwinning for collaborative projects.
What is eTwinning? Additional resources for French from the British Council Naomi McAteer (British Council)	Naomi will introduce you to eTwinning; how to find a French-speaking partner school and start up a collaborative project at your school. Naomi will talk about the range of educational packs which can support cross curricular project based learning in the French classroom.	Naomi McAteer is Education &amp; Society Manager at British Council Northern Ireland, and her main responsibilities are Higher Education, Society work and the office's Languages portfolio. Her most recent work has centred around leading the office's first Language Trends research for schools, as well as leading on projects to further develop awareness and learning of Mandarin and Arabic in N. Ireland schools. Naomi studied French and Spanish and is a qualified Conference Interpreter, and worked briefly in DG Interpretation at the European Commission prior to joining British Council N. Ireland.
Real eTwinning projects Christelle Bernard (St. Paul's High School)	Having recently won two national awards for her eTwinning projects ('Hands of the World' and 'Me voilà! Et toi...c'est qui?') at the 14th annual British Council eTwinning National Conference, Christelle will look at what her projects entailed, pupil outcomes and give you inspiration to start up your own project.	Christelle Bernard has over 25 years' experience teaching French and works at St Paul's High School: -the 1st post-primary in N. Ireland to become an eTwinning School, in 2018. She has led projects for the European Studies programme, a Comenius project for primary schools and has contributed to the Full International School Award twice. She is a British Council Ambassador and has taken part in over 60 eTwinning projects, receiving many quality labels both at the national and European level. This year St Paul's was delighted to receive 2 National and European Labels alongside 2 National Awards for a project in French with Years 9 and 10 and another with their SEN pupils using Makaton for multi-cultural engagement and cross curricularly.

1130- 1150 Break

1150- 1240 3. Encouraging genuine pupil interaction using the DELF model.

Practical ideas inspired by the DELF speaking assessment at A1 (Beginners)

Claire Williamson (Formerly Victoria College Belfast)

Teaching pupils to formulate questions is always challenging but with role-plays now featuring on the GCSE examination, it is a necessity. Claire will look at ways to encourage pupils to use the 'tu' and 'vous' forms correctly, to form questions and how to better prepare pupils for any surprise scenario.

Claire holds a Licence and a Maîtrise from Nantes University, a Diploma in Teaching MFL to Adults from Edinburgh University and a PGCE from QUB.

She has also worked as a freelance translator and interpreter for the Norwich Union insurance company. Claire has over 25 years' experience teaching French at all levels and to all ages. She taught adults at what is now BMC for 9 years, followed by 17 years at Victoria College Belfast (VCB) including 6 years as Head of French.

She is a certified DELF examiner up to B2 level; she introduced and ran a successful DELF club for two years at VCB. She has also worked as a Resource Writer and Examiner for CCEA and AQA.

1240-1315 4. Learn more about the Francophone world with TV5 Monde.

Introduction to TV5 Monde resources for KS3 & 4 (Part i)

Julie Cazaly- Institut français, London

Do you want to use more authentic videos in your teaching? Julie will explain how to navigate through and incorporate the new audio-visual resources from TV5 Monde, the free French TV channel, into your lessons. You will look at the wide range of resources suitable for students aged 11-16 (CEFR levels A1-2 to B1-2) which can be integrated into your schemes of work to engage pupils inside and

Julie Cazaly has taught French at the Institut français in London for over 10 years. She holds a Master's degree in teaching FLE and a PGCE in MFL, and has taught a wide range of levels to diverse audiences, including primary and secondary pupils, diplomats and corporate professionals. Julie is a certified teacher for the official French Ministry of Education's DELF and DALF French language outside of the classroom with authentic language and culture from the Francophone world. Delegates are asked to bring their own laptop or tablet to navigate the site and gain some hands-on experience during the session.

proficiency diplomas and has included these qualifications into her teaching practices and students' assessment in the UK. As an accredited trainer for TV5 Monde, Julie has been working with primary and post-primary teachers on supporting their class work with authentic up-to-date francophone resources and media.

1315-1400 Lunch

1400-1445 Introduction to TV5 Monde resources for KS3 & 4 (Part ii) (Julie Cazaly)

1445-1450 Comfort break

1450-1540 À vous! Practice and Q & A session on TV5 Monde (Julie Cazaly)

1540 End