

THE GLOBAL IRISH NETWORK

"'The Troubles,' the Covid Pandemic, Unexpected Death and Complex Grief"

Zoom Webinar: Thursday, March 4
4:00 pm GMT/11:00 am EST

To register, visit irishstudies.nd.edu

Dr. Michael Duffy, Director of the Specialist MSc (Trauma) in Cognitive Behavioural Therapy at Queen's University; Recognised worldwide as an expert on the psychological impact of trauma

Dr. Ciaran Mulholland, Consultant Psychiatrist and Clinical Director of the Northern Ireland Regional Trauma Network, a clinical service for individuals with PTSD as a consequence of the violence of the "Troubles"

Moderator: Dr. Anne Campbell, Senior Lecturer, School of Social Sciences, Education, and Social Work at Queen's University

