

Delivering 21st Century Medicine for Bowel Cancer Patients

Wednesday 29th June 2016

Centre for Cancer Research and Cell Biology (CCRCB), Queen's University Belfast (QUB)

Belfast City Hospital Campus, 19.00 – 21.00

18.45 Registration

19.00 Welcome Paula Bradley MLA, Chair of the Health Committee, Northern Ireland Assembly

19.05 Bowel Cancer: What you need to know

Dr Victoria Coyle, Clinical Senior Lecturer, QUB, Consultant Oncologist, NI Cancer Centre

19.20 Bowel Cancer Screening: The Future of Early Diagnosis

Sara Bainbridge, Cancer Research UK policy manager for early diagnosis, London, UK

19.35 Bowel Cancer: A Patient Perspective

Tom McGrath, Chief Commissioner of the Charity Commission for NI

19.50 Tea / Coffee and Information Stands

20.05 Bowel Cancer: The Need for Research

Deborah Alsina CEO Bowel Cancer UK

20.15 Precision Cancer Medicine: Hope or Hype

Professor Mark Lawler, Dean of Education, Faculty of Medicine, Health and Life Sciences, Chair in Translational Cancer Genomics CCRCB

20.30 Panel Question Time and Discussion

Chair: Professor Mark Lawler

Panel: Deborah Alsina, Prof Ian Banks (European Cancer Organisation, Brussels, Belgium), Sara Bainbridge; Dr Victoria Coyle; Dr Edward Goodall (NI Cancer Research Consumer Forum), Tom McGrath; Gerry McElwee (Cancer Focus Northern Ireland)

21.00 Close

Attendance is free and open to everyone so come along with your friends and family to this important event. To reserve your place, please contact Jenni at 028 9097 2907 or email ccrcb@qub.ac.uk.